WESTERLY

A formal transfer has not been made yet, of Riverside park, Westerly's playground, to the Nixaret company, which the town in financial meeting voted to sell to the company for $5,000, the land to be used in connection with the erection of buildings for industrial purposes. It was stipulated in the vote authorizing the sale, that the purchase money be set aside to secure land for a public playground, but no particular plot was specified. It is understood, however, that the new playground, will be located off High street on land owned by Hannah Crandall and comprising about ten acres. This land has been appraised and the appraisal is satisfactory to the owner. The appraisal was made before the financial town meeting and Mrs. Crandall had full knowledge that the land, if taken, was for a public playground, and made no attempt to boost the price.

The money to be paid the town, when the transfer of Riverside park is completed, will be ample to purchase the Crandall land and prepare it for the purpose intended. It is expected that the transfer will be made in the early spring. The Crandall property purchased soon. Plans can then be made to open the new playground, which will include a baseball field in the early spring. The new grounds are on the route of the Shore Line Electric railway, a convenience that will be appreciated by the general public.

The Friday morning train from New London to Providence due to arrive at Westerly at 7:30 was 15 minutes late. The number of the locomotive was 1219, the engineer was born on the 13th day of the month, the number of the car on the rear of the train was 1353, there are 13 letters in the name of George Rowland, the conductor, and just 13 passengers alighted from the train at Westerly.

The motion was defeated to have the house committee on finance re-

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL PEARY, DISCOVERER OF NORTH POLE

Washington, Feb. 20.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, retired, discoverer of the North Pole, died at his home here early today after a two years' illness of pernicious anemia, during which thirty-five blood transfusions had been of no avail. Sailors, attaches of the naval hospital, and many ex-service men gave of their life's blood during that period in the vain effort to prolong the life of the country's foremost explorer.

It had been known to the explorer's family for weeks, but kept from the public, that his life was endangered, but no one thought the end so near as it was. He was in the hospital at Arlington National Cemetery with the full honors of his rank.

In an appreciation of Admiral Peary, Gilbert H. Grosvenor, president of the National Geographic Society, today said:

"It has been my privilege to know Admiral Peary intimately for twenty years, and I find it difficult to express my admiration and affection for his personal qualities, the bigness of his heart and personality, his loyal devotion to his friends, his rugged integrity and his love for everything American."

The struggle for the North Pole began nearly one hundred years before the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth Rock, being inaugurated (1327) by that king of many distinctions, Henry VIII of England.

"Scenes of hardy navigators, Brit- ish, French, Dutch, German, Scandinavian and Russian, followed Davis, all seeking to hew across the pole the much-coveted short route to China and the Indies. The rivalry was keen, and costly in lives, ships and treasure, but from the time of Henry VIII, for three and one-half centuries, or until 1875, with the exception of 1594-1595, when, through William Barents, the Dutch held the record, Great Britain's flag was always waving nearest the top of the globe."

"No better proof of the minute care with which every campaign was planned can be given than the fact, that though Peary has taken hundreds of men north with him on his various expeditions, he has brought them all back, and in good health, with the exception of two, who lost their lives in accidents for which the leader was in no wise responsible. What a contrast this record is to the long list of fatalities from "disease," frost, snow-blindness and starvation, which in the regular mind has made the word "Arctic" synonymous with tragedy and death."

Thus Robert E. Peary crowned a life devoted to the exploration of the icy north and to the advancement of science by the hard-won discovery of the north pole. The prize of four centuries of striving yielded at last to the most persistent and scientific attack ever waged against it. Peary's success was made possible by long experience, which gave him a thorough knowledge of the difficulties to be overcome, and by an unusual combination of mental and physical power—a resourcefulness which enabled him to find a way to surmount all obstacles, a tenacity and courage which knew no defeat, and a physical endowment such as nature gives to few men.

It has been well said that the glory of Peary's achievement belongs to the world and is shared by all mankind. But we, his fellow countrymen, who have known how he struggled these many years against discouragement and scoffing, and how he persevered under financial burdens that would crush less stalwart shoulders, specially rejoice that he made good at last and that an American has become the peer of Hudson, Magellan and Columbus."

Tribute to the achievements of Admiral Peary was paid by Secretary Daniels today in the following message of sympathy to Mrs. Peary:

"Voicing the sentiments of the whole navy, I desire to express deep sympathy in your bereavement. If this hour it means to me the assurance that the whole country sorrow with you and that all over the world there will be profound regret at the death of your distinguished husband. He had the honor to accomplish the realization of a great ambition and to receive the plaudits of all nations. His great achievement brought particular distinction and to the American navy, of which he was an honored and distinguished officer."

Eating the Nimble Locust.

Locusts are today eaten in Arabia, pretty much as they were in the time of John the Baptist. Foreigners as well as natives declare that they are really an excellent article of diet.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. I refused to do so. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information to all who want it. Write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 4151 Marcellus Avenue, Manssuan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.
